

Katrina Survivor Reunited with Rescued Cat in Mississippi Hospital Room

Volunteers reunited 59-year-old Katrina survivor with his beloved "Miss Kitty"

Harris was able to spend time with Miss Kitty before Troullier and Wackerbauer returned the cat to the Noah's Wish animal rescue center in Slidell, where she will be cared for until he is released from the hospital and able to relocate. According to the hospital, Harris is suffering from internal bleeding of the kidneys and stomach and will require surgery in the next few days.
