

The Cat Channel Newswire

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Housecat Survives a Month in Bitter Cold Freddie the cat was found on his owners back porch after mysteriously disappearing a month before, the Georgetown (Massachusetts) Record reports. Read the article

One-Eyed Kitten Sold to Museum The remains of a one-eyed, noseless kitten that was born in December will become the spokesanimal for a new museum of anomalies, Newsday reports. Read the article

Woman Arrested on Animal Cruelty Charges Nineteen dead cats, a frozen raccoon, and numerous ill and/or malnourished animals were found at a womans home, the Atlanta Journal-Constitution reports. Read the article

Cat Traps Issued By Animal Control A woman who called animal control to pick up over a dozen feral cats was told to trap the felines herself, KHOU-TV in Houston, Texas reports. Read the article

Teens Rescue Cat From Tree Two teenagers saved a cat that was stuck in a tall tree for two days after other agencies said there was nothing they could do, the Brockville (Canada) Recorder and Times reports. Read the article Posted: April 7, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST