

The Cat Channel Newswire

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

New Yorks Cats Are Using Up Their Nine LivesThe saga of Molly the black cat freed from the wall of a Greenwich Village shop on Friday after a frenzied two-week spectacle was the latest chapter in a rather old New York story, the Story of the Trapped Cat, the New York Times News Service reports.Read the article

Price Tag Unknown For Pet Evacuation PlanCreating a plan to rescue dogs, cats and other pets from hurricanes would also help prevent the loss of human life in storms, a Senate panel agreed on Tuesday, although it's unclear how the state would pay for such a plan, the Associated Press reports.Read the article

After-School Group Knits For CatsTen 4th and 5th-grade children in a knitting group are donating their work to cats at a humane society, the Bangor (Maine) Daily News reports.Read the article

Questions Surround Cats EuthanizationA Philadelphia-area Society for the Prevention Of Cruelty to Animals facility has been accused of killing a pet cat, NBC 10 News in Pennsylvania reports.Read the article

All Cats and Dogs in County Must Be Spayed or NeuteredIf you have a dog or cat and you live anywhere in Santa Cruz County, you now have to get your pet spayed or neutered, KESQ-TV in Palm Desert, Calif., reports.Read the article

Posted: April 19, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST