

The Cat Channel Newswire

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Tiny Cat Has the Notice of Guinness World Records Officials from Guinness World Records are investigating whether a 3-month-old kitten is the world's smallest living cat, the San Diego Union-Tribune reports. Read the article

Ex-SPCA Director Charged in Cat Death The former Delaware County SPCA director of operations has been charged with tampering with public records and fabricating physical evidence in the death of Whiskers the cat in February, the Philadelphia Inquirer reports. Read the article

Cat Hoarding Suspect Charged Allegedly cramming a northeast home with more than 90 neglected cats has netted a Calgary woman a charge under the Animal Protection Act., the Calgary Sun reports. Read the article

Fad of Taking Photos With Tiger Cubs Brings Danger Those cute tiger cubs that pose with smiling children for photos at shopping malls and county fairs across the country are all the rage, but the cubs lose their value when they grow big enough to hurt somebody, the Minneapolis-St. Paul Star Tribune reports. Read the article

Animals, Some Dead, Removed From Home Lapeer County Animal Control officers on Monday collected about 40 cats, a lizard, a 3-foot python and a few ducks and rabbits living in the home near the County Courthouse, the Flint (Michigan) Journal reports. Read the article

Posted: April 21, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST