

The Cat Channel Newswire

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Cat Wakes Boy, Saving Him From Diabetic Seizure If not for his cat Mel-O, 9-year-old Alex Rose figures he'd be laid up in a hospital bed trying to recover from a diabetic seizure or worse, the Edmonton (Alberta) Sun reports. Read the article

New Law Requires Neutering Adopted Cats A new Alabama law requires that pets adopted from animal shelters and humane societies must be spayed or neutered to try to control the number of unwanted animals, the Associated Press reports. Read the article

Board Rejects Proposed New Shelter for Cats The lives of 125 cats are hanging in the balance after a Parkland County appeal board nixed plans for their new home, the Edmonton (Alberta) Sun reports. Read the article

Teen Girls Charged With Abusing Cats On Myspace Marion County, Ind., prosecutor Carl Brizzi announced the filing of animal cruelty charges against two 14-year-old girls after they posted video of them kicking a cat wrapped in plastic on the myspace.com website, the Indianapolis Star reports. Read the article Posted: April 28, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST