

Atlanta-Area Search Website Launches New Pet Services Guide

Pets.kudzu.com hopes to be a one-stop resource for Atlanta residents on veterinarians, obedience classes, pet sitters and other animal services.

Kudzu.com launched an online pets guide, www.pets.kudzu.com, where Atlanta-area pet owners can research veterinarians, groomers, kennels, pet food/specialty stores, obedience classes and pet sitters in their area.

Additionally, there are ratings and reviews of these services from other Atlanta-area residents providing backgrounds on the professionals.

To many people, pets are considered a part of the family. The Kudzu.com Pets Guide is a great resource to help pet owners find the best care and services in Atlanta, Cox Search LLC vice president and general manager Tom Bates said in a statement.

Kudzu.com provides consumers a comprehensive list of service providers in the Atlanta area and 20 surrounding counties, plus the following: detailed information about Atlanta local service professionals, maps and driving directions; business credentials including Better Business Bureau reports; and detailed ratings and reviews from other Atlanta area consumers who have used particular service providers.

Service providers located in the following 20 Atlanta area counties are available on Kudzu.com: Barrow, Bartow, Carroll, Cherokee, Clayton, Cobb, Coweta, DeKalb, Douglas, Fayette, Forsyth, Fulton, Gwinnett, Henry, Newton, Paulding, Pickens, Rockdale, Spalding and Walton. Posted: May 27, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST