

The Cat Channel Newswire

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Got a Cat? Its Time to Get a License Dog and cat owners must register their pets with the Ventura County Animal Regulation Department that will conduct a door-to-door campaign in July to ensure that pets have the necessary papers, The Moorpark (California) Acorn reports.Read the article

Catmen Taking Over Felines from Women There are an awful lot of men who own cats now, a column in The Gainesville (Georgia) Times reports.Read the article

Improving a Dogs (and Cats) Life Entering the York County SPCA shelter is like entering someone's home, The York (Pennsylvania) Daily Record reports.Read the article

Friends of Felines Honors Adopt-A-Cat Month Several local organizations are hosting events to help ensure Oregon's status as the second-most cat-friendly state in the nation, The (Salem, Oregon) Statesman Journal reports.Read the article

Woman, Child and Trooper Bitten by Rabid Cat A rabid cat in Pennsylvania bit a 60-year-old woman, her 6-year-old grandson and a state trooper who shot the animal, The Associated Press reports in the (Pennsylvania) Centre Daily Times.Read the article

Posted: June 3, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST