

The Cat Channel Newswire

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Cat Licenses ProposedA Summit County, Ohio, councilman wants to license cats as well as dogs as part of a proposal to offer owners of spayed or neutered pets a lifetime license, The (Cleveland) Plain Dealer reports.Read the article

Cat to Flee Florida for AnonymityCzar, the striped cat who bit a woman and a boy last month, will avoid a fatal rabies test by moving out of town, The St. Petersburg (Florida) Times reports.Read the article

Health Officials Issue Alert for Stray CatHealth officials have issued an alert for a stray cat that scratched someone June 1 at the Gloucester-Mathews Humane Society, The (Newport News, Va.) Daily Press reports.Read the article

Cat Problems Show Need for Neutering, Agent SaysThe Humane Society of Mercer County is reminding people in a big way to spay and neuter their cats, The (Sharon, Pa.) Herald reports.Read the article

Group Aims to Control Feral Cat PopulationThe Cleveland Animal Protective League will receive about 6,000 stray and homeless cats this year, The (Cleveland) Plain Dealer reports.Read the articlePosted: June 9, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST