

The Cat Channel Newswire (6/17/06)

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Lewis Offered Utah ReprieveLewis, the Connecticut cat in trouble over attacks on neighbors, has been offered a permanent home at a no-kill shelter in Utah, The Connecticut Post reports.Read the article

Kitties Need a Name and HomeThe Pierre/Fort Pierre Area Humane Society is holding a kitten-naming contest, The (Pierre, South Dakota) Capital Journal reports.Read the article

Target: Feline ReproductionEach weekday, a crew from Taits Every Animal Matters (TEAM) drives to a Connecticut destination, parks, and collects the 45 or so cats whose owners have booked appointments, and by 3 pm, the cats, reproductive days over, The Hartford (Connecticut) Courant reports.Read the article

Feral Felines Spark Cat FightOfficials in Springhill, Nova Scotia are getting complaints about the growing feral cat population, The (Nova Scotia, Canada) Chronicle Herald reports.Read the articlePosted: June 20, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST