

The Cat Channel Newswire (6/22/06)

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Orphans of Storm Face Feline Influx Currently at Orphans of the Storm, 76 cats and kittens and another 35 young kittens and their mothers in foster homes await adoption, The (Pittsburgh) Leader Times reports.Read the article

Home Full of Cats Leads to Arrest of ManA man was arrested after authorities found as many as 60 cats -- some dead, some alive -- in his house, The (Illinois) Daily Southtown reports.Read the article

Bobcat Prowls Bush CreekA bobcat in Brush Creek, Colo., tried to eat a family cat, The Vail Daily News reports.Read the article

Cat Owner Faces Cruelty ChargeTen cats were removed from a Rochester, N.Y., home Tuesday and the owner was charged with cruelty to animals, The Rochester Democrat and Chronicle reports.Read the article

Texas Man Mauled by TigerA man was recovering at a Dallas medical center Tuesday after a Bengal tiger mauled him at a business that provides exotic animals for zoos and exhibitions, The Dallas Morning News reports.Read the article
Posted: June 22, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST