

The Cat Channel Newswire (6/27/06)

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Cat Roundup Brings in Nine LivesCatnippers efforts net nine feral felines to be spayed, neutered and vaccinated, The Evansville (Indiana) Courier & Press reports.Read the article

SPCA Pleas for Cash in Light of Kitty CrunchA Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) branch manager needs more room at the citys animal shelter and has urged the City Council to approve $9,000 in funding to expand the shelter, The Quesnel (British Columbia, Canada) Cariboo Observer reports.Read the article

Kitten Season Brings Tragedy Along with New LifeThere is an explosion of unwanted, under-cared-for strays in our region and nationally, The (Binghamton, New York) Press & Sun-Bulletin reports.Read the article

Raccoon Suspected After 3 Cats EatenA hungry raccoon is apparently eating cats in Cupertino, Calif., and the owner of one of the victims urges residents to keep their feline friends inside, The San Jose (California) Mercury News reports.Read the article

Posted: June 27, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST