

The Cat Channel Newswire (7/06/06)

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Fewer Pet Adoptions Fill ShelterAn overpopulation of cats and dogs in about the past five years is making it difficult for local animal shelters to find every animal a permanent or even temporary home, The Bradenton (Florida) Herald reports.Read the article

Program Traps, Neuters, Releases CatsThe Big Fix Project is the only agency in Kerrville, Texas that advocates neutering instead of killing, The Kerrville (Texas) Daily Times reports.Read the article

Coyotes Making Meals of PetsAs housing developments move into natural areas, peoples pets have become prey to coyotes moving into northwest Florida, The Associated Press reports in the Daytona Beach (Florida) News-Journal.Read the articlePosted: July 6, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST