

Sam Voted Out of Meow Mix House

The orange tabby and white cat from Texas flunks the purr test.

The cat experts at the Meow Mix House have cast their votes, and Sam is the next contestant to leave the feline reality show. Sam is still a winner, though; he is going to live with a new family in the Dallas, Texas, metro area.

During his tenure in the Meow Mix House, Sam charmed the public with his loving and playful nature. In fact, Sams easy-going nature made him a natural to appear on NBCs Today Show last month in a segment highlighting the house of cats living together.

The Meow Mix House is home to 10 cats from animal shelters across the country. Sam represented Operation Kindness in Carrollton, Texas. Though he didn't win the top prize a position as feline vice president of research and development for Meow Mix he is still eligible to win the viewers choice award.
