

The Cat Channel Newswire (7/14/06)

Stay up to date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Big Cats Must Find New HomeA refuge owner must remove lions, tigers and leopards from his refuge east of Rock Springs, The Baraboo (Wisconsin) News Republic reports.Read the article

Veterans Home Puts Kibosh on KittyA furry feline named Binkey is getting the boot today from a veterans home after managements decision to put the kibosh on allowing pets to roam among their residents, The Boston Herald reports.Read the article

Recent Mountain Lion Sightings Spark ConcernDespite two mountain lion sightings late last week close to town, it is not necessarily that unusual or cause for concern, The Reno (Nevada) Gazette-Journal reports.Read the article

Sixty-Five Cats Lived Next DoorSixty-five cats were rescued from feces-covered, trash-heaped rooms in a house, The New Haven (Connecticut) Independent reports.Read the article Posted: July 14, 2006, 5:00 a.m. EST