

The CatChannel Newswire (Updated: 01-18-07)

Stay up-to-date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Posted: January 18, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Warm Weather Translates to More Kittens

Unseasonably warm temperatures have led to what seems to be an extended breeding cycle for some feral cats, meaning a bump in the local kitten population and full cages at several local shelters and rescue groups, (New York) Newsday reports. Read the article

Cat Mystery Becomes Families Feud

A family wants county officials to begin posting signs on residential property regarding where cat traps are being used, The Fort Mill (South Carolina) Times reports. Read the article

Ordinance Calls for Multiple Animal Permit

A new animal ordinance approved by the Great Falls, Mont., City Commission requires households with more than two dogs or two cats to apply for a multiple-animal permit, The Associated Press reports. Read the article

Former SPCA Worker Gets Community Service

A former Delaware County SPCA employee who falsified records rather than tell a family its cat was mistakenly euthanized agreed to community service and probation, The Delco (Delaware County, Pennsylvania) Times reports. Read the article