

The CatChannel Newswire Updated: 03/03/2007

Stay up-to-date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Posted: March 03, 2007, 5 a.m. EST

Cats Slink Away from New Law

After a chorus of disapproval from cat owners, McHenry County, Ill., officials have decided that felines can slink through life unnoticed and unregistered, The Chicago Tribune reports. Read the article

Feline Feeding Frenzy

When one woman started feeding feral cats in a Connecticut town about six years ago there were only 10 of them; today, the cat colonies have grown to more than 50 cats, The (Danbury, Conn.) News-Times reports. Read the article

City Kitties Sitting Pretty

It's a great time to be a cat, if you have a loving family; but experts say many are not so lucky, The Vancouver (British Columbia, Canada) Sun reports. Read the article

55 Cats Removed from Home

Animal cruelty charges are possible for a couple after 55 cats were taken from a Michigan house, The Battle Creek (Michigan) Enquirer reports. Read the article

Probation for Man Who Put Down Neighbor's Cat

A man charged with trapping his neighbor's cat and having it put down pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor charge, (New York) Newsday reports. Read the article