Garfield, Odie, Jon and the rest of Garfield's friends have starred in countless comic strips, television specials and feature films. Now fans of the tubby tabby can catch a glimpse into the popular cartoon cat's world in "Garfield & Friends: Behind the Scenes," a new DVD scheduled to debut Dec. 5.

Jim Davis, Garfield's creator, hand-picked 15 episodes of the television series "Garfield & Friends" to include on this DVD. The episodes give fans a new perspective on Garfield's unique world. Viewers will watch Garfield teach kittens how to annoy their humans and learn his viewpoint on cats in space.

The DVD is being released by Fox Home Entertainment in time for the holidays. For more information on "Garfield & Friends: Behind the Scenes," visit Garfield's website.
