

The CatChannel Newswire (Updated: 11-07-06)

Stay up-to-date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Posted: November 07, 2006, 5 a.m. EST

Raining Cats in Puget Sound

It's raining cats in the Puget Sound area, as local shelters are overrun with felines, and they're asking for the public's help to save them, KOMO-TV in Seattle reports. Read the article

Few Cats Licensed As Deadline Looms

More than 3,000 Calgary kitties have been collared under a new cat bylaw, with two months to go before the deadline, The Calgary (Alberta, Canada) Herald reports. Read the article

Officers Look Into Lynx Shooting

A Lynx, a threatened and federally protected species that officials are trying to re-establish in Colorado, was found shot in the woods of southwestern Colorado, The Associated Press reports.

Read the article

Man Allegedly Runs Over Kittens

Detectives are searching for a man suspected of killing two kittens after deliberately running them over with his car in an animal shelter parking lot, WTOV-TV in West Virginia reports. Read the article