CATDVD announced that the seventh winner of the CATDVD Cares Award is Whiskers Animal Benevolent League of Albany, N.Y. CATDVD recognized the animal welfare organization with a plaque, a copy of the company's DVD and a monetary donation.

"The CATDVD Cares program is our way of trying to recognize those generous people who are making a positive difference in the lives of so many of our furry friends," said Dave Casto, CATDVD CEO. "It is dedicated to recognizing these individuals for their efforts and thanking them."

CATDVD selects the Cares Award winners based on nominations at the company's website. From those nominations, the company researches the animal welfare organizations and selects a winner. Pet owners are welcome to nominate a deserving organization at the CATDVD website.
