

The CatChannel Newswire (Updated: 10-11-06)

Stay up-to-date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Posted: October 11, 2006, 5 a.m. EST

Feral Cats Get a Reprieve

City officials have suspended a week-old program of trapping feral cats that were digging up turf in the Japanese Tea Gardens, but not before three of the animals were destroyed, The (San Antonio) Express-News reports. Read the article

Lawsuit Filed Over Cat

A business owner in Palmer, Alaska, has filed a lawsuit to get her cat returned from a former employee, The Associated Press reports. Read the article

Officials Table Cat Ordinance

Surgoinsville, Tenn., officials have said they aren't interested in rounding up every outdoor cat in town and taking them to the animal shelter, but they do want to be able to prosecute the owners of cats that cause property damage, The (Kingsport, Tennessee) Times-News reports. Read the article

Accused Man Who Poisoned Cats to Serve Community Service

A felony charge against a man accused of poisoning stray cats will be dismissed as long as he completes community work service and remains otherwise law-abiding, The Austin (Texas) Daily Herald reports. Read the article