

Richmond SPCA Presents Cat Tales & Cocktails

The third annual "Howl-O-Ween" event will feature live music and pet-themed events at the Robins-Starr Humane Center Oct. 27.

Posted: October 24, 2006, 5 a.m. EST

The Richmond, Va., Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) invites animal lovers to celebrate "Howl-O-Ween" at the Cat Tales and Cocktails event at the Robins-Starr Humane Center, Friday, Oct. 27, from 7 to 11 p.m. Highlights of the evening will include live music from the Bluz Cats and a silent auction of more than 50 items.

Pets are welcome and can participate in events with their owners. A pet photographer will be there to take portraits, and owners can get in touch with their pets' feelings with the help of a pet psychic.

Cat Tales and Cocktails is sponsored by Car Pool, the Richmond Times-Dispatch, Lite 98, Lion's Den Studios, Rosebud's K-9 Kreation, Easy Street, Cabo's Corner Bistro and Cooper Vineyards. For more information, or to purchase tickets, visit the Richmond SPCA website.