

The CatChannel Newswire (Updated: 10-25-06)

Stay up-to-date with the latest cat news from all around the country.

Town Looking for Homes for Cats

The town of Newburgh, N.Y., is looking for a few good homes for 20 cats seized in a raid on a house last month, The (New York) Times Herald-Record reports. Read the article

Residents Seek to Control Feral Cats

Since April, a man has trapped more than 60 feral cats and paid $79 per cat to get them spayed or neutered, vaccinated and de-wormed -- roughly $4,500, The (Freemont, California) Argus reports. Read the article

Woman Works to Cut Wild Cat Population

Every evening, Barbara Lovelace puts out 8 pounds of dry and eight cans of canned cat food, keeping dishes full for felines that live in the urban wilds of Mount Shasta, Calif., The (Redding, California) Record Searchlight reports. Read the article

Adoptable Cats May Have Been Killed

The Humane Society of Pinellas, Fla., is being investigated after volunteers said three cats were euthanized, the Florida Today newspaper reports. Read the article