

The Amazing Pallas Cat

Check out our slideshow of this gorgeous but little-known wildcat.

The Pallas cat is about the size of a domestic cat, but sports a massive coat and a giant furry tail — which is good, because it is a native of frigid Mongolia and Central Asia. Click here to view a video of Pallas kittens in the wild, and read more about them on CatChannel. If you are interested in finding out more about conservation efforts, go to website of the Small Cat Conservation Alliance or Save the Manul.