

The Many Colors of a Cat's Personality

Text and photos by Dr. Elizabeth Devitt, DVM

Is your cat's personality linked to the color of her coat? Studies in other species link character to color, but there are few facts about felines. However, after 20 years of practicing veterinary medicine — a decade of which has been devoted to feline specialty practice — I believe that cattitude is color-coded. See if you agree!
